GRADUALLY QUELLING THE REVOLTERS IN IRELAND

Troops Closing in, Though the Fighting Still Proceeds

100 Casualties---Huns Landed Munitions.

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, April 29.—Although the story of the early hours of the Dublin uprising has now been disclosed in considerable detail, England is still without authentic information as to the progress of later events. Normal telegraph, telephone and mail services with Ireland have not been restored, and the existing means of communication are subject to such a strict censorabily that it is possible to obtain only fragmentary information. Such news despatches as came through this morning added little to the information contained in last night's official advices and stories of eye-witnesses.

As far as official reports show, the situation in Dublin is gradually being brought under control. The most important recent news, that the rebels have been driven out of St. Stephen's Green with bombs, sustaining heavy losses in killed, wounded and prison-news, that the rebels have been driven out of St. Stephen's Green with bombs, sustaining heavy losses in killed, wounded and prisoners, has not been confirmed officially. There seems to be no doubt, however, that the rebels are still in control of various parts of Dubhowever, that street fighting continues, with a lengthening list of casualties. It is reported the casualty list already exceeds 100.

Of the situation outside Dublin little is known beyond the official admission that the disaffection has spread to various localities in the west and south of Ireland. Field Marshal French's statement of last night described these disturbances as local in character, and so far as has been revealed by information which has passed the censorship, they have not been attended by heavy fighting.

far,

Their ways seem harsh and wild;

They follow the beck of a baleful star,

Their paths are dream-begulied.

Yet haply they sought but a wider range,
Some loftler mountain slope,
And little recked of the country strange
Beyond the gates of hope.

And haply a bell with a luring call Summoned their feet to tread Midst the cruel rocks, where the deep pitfall And the lurking snares are spread.

Maybe, in spite of their tameless days Of outcast liberty. They're sick at heart for the homely ways Where their gathered brothers be.

Shoes of Quality

Warm, a little warmer, Hot! Reminds you of cool footwear, and that reminds you of Climie's RE'. IABLE up-to-date shoes!

SMASHED—The past ten days has smashed all records in shoe selling in this store. The "looking-around" shoppers tell us that we have the NICEST and BEST VALUE shoes in the city.

SHORT SKIRTS—Our long vamp, narrow toe, high hee! shoes which look so pretty with the short skirt, are big sellers. Our medium high-cut, in patent, glaze and dull kid are up-to-the-minute in STYLE and FTT, and we had our buying so well arranged, we are able to hold them at the old prices, $4.00 and $4.50—but only so long as the present stock lasts—Women's shoes $3.50 to $7.50.

NEW FITTING FOR MEN

In our experience in fitting shoes we have had difficulty in fit-ting some feet—allowing an EASY FIT across the ball of the foot, and a SNUG FIT around instep and heel. We have succeeded in get-
